Supplementum Epigraphicum Graecum Online

Edited by A. Chaniotis, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, T. Corsten, University of Vienna, N. Papazarkadas, University of California, Berkeley, and E. Stavrianopoulou, University of Heidelberg.

Supplementum Epigraphicum Graecum Online is now available on our new platform, Scholarly Editions, in a completely new design, and with enhanced search options throughout the entire publication. Brill's Scholarly Editions is designed to provide an uninterrupted reading experience and to display parallel texts side by side. From 1 January 2022 onwards, the parallel run will end and Supplementum Epigraphicum Graecum Online will only be accessible on Brill's Scholarly Editions platform.

Supplementum Epigraphicum Graecum Online (SEG) is an annual publication collecting newly published Greek inscriptions and studies on previously known documents. It covers the entire Greek world from the early Greek period until the 8th century A.D. Supplementum Epigraphicum Graecum presents complete Greek texts, and a critical apparatus, of new inscriptions; it summarizes new readings, interpretations, and studies of known inscriptions, and occasionally presents the Greek text of these documents.
