The Rector's Decree appointing the examining board shall be published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the university website.

From the date the Rector's Decree nominating the examining board is published candidates have 30 days to state their opposition to any of the components of the board. After this period no instances may be presented.

The board nominates a President and Secretary are nominated, the board operates with the presence of all its members and takes decisions unanimously. Participation in all board activities is mandatory for all members.

The Board, upon notifying the head of the selection procedure and receiving authorization from the Rector, may hold meetings using telematic technology. At the end of the meeting the minutes must be drawn up, approved, signed and forwarded to the competent administration office.

Expenses incurred may be reimbursed in accordance with the University's Regulations pursuant to art. 7 paragraph 4 in reference to the recruitment of fixed-term researchers

Art.8 Role and Duties of the Examining Board

In the first session the Board, having determined that in compliance with related laws, no incompatibility factors are present, outlines the preliminary assessment criteria and procedures for selection in compliance with the parameters indicated in Ministerial Decree n. 243, 25 May 20011, in reference to qualification assessment and scientific publications (art.2 and 3 M.D. n.243)

The commission also establishes an analytical system to confer points to candidates after preliminary assessment has been completed. The Board then establishes which candidates are admitted to the interview, together with the criteria for testing their English language skills, and Italian language skills for foreign applicants.

The head of the selection procedure is immediately notified of the above mentioned results which are to be published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website for at least 7 days before the Board can move on to the next phase of the selection procedure.

The above mentioned preliminary procedure initially involves determining if the candidates possess the requisites for participation, then their CVs and publications, including their Ph.D thesis, are assessed. Following preliminary assessment, the Board will admit the most worthy candidates - 10 to 20 per cent of the original candidates – and no less than six in number - to participate in a public discussion of their qualifications and scientific work; all candidates shall be admitted to the discussion should their total number be equal to or less than six.

After the discussion the board will grade the qualifications and each of the published works presented by the candidates admitted to said discussion. The board will draw up a collective overall evaluation of the candidates admitted to the discussion of their qualifications and published works, stating whether they are eligible for the competition and expressing a concise evaluation.

The list of candidates is drawn up by the Board and published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website at least 10 days before the interview. This is to be considered an official notification for candidates. Candidates are required to appear for their interviews on the indicated date with a valid identity document. It is important to remember that candidates are not notified individually but only through the above stated notifications published online.

Following the interviews, the Board grades the candidate's qualifications, attributes a grade to each publication and assesses interview and foreign language skills. Once this has been completed the Board draws up a ranking of the candidates and deliberates (by majority) the winner of the selection procedure.

The results of all of the above are published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website which to all effects represents an official notification for the participants in the selection.

All proceedings are contained in the minutes of the meetings, including all the assessment results obtained during the preliminary meeting, grading of qualifications and publications, interview the oral testing to determine English language skills.

Art. 9 Time Limits of the Selection Procedure

The Board is to conclude all necessary actions within four months from the Rector's Decree nominating its members.

The rector may extend the deadline only once and for no more than two months only in the case of exceptional and documented reasons brought forth by the President of the Board before the established deadline expires.

If all procedures are not concluded even within the extended deadline the Rector shall proceed to the substitution of the Board members, who become liable for the delays caused, establishing a new deadline for completion of the selection procedure.

Art. 10 Determining Validity of Proceedings

Within thirty days after the proceedings are consigned, the Rector issues a Decree establishing their validity, which is published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website. This, to all effects, represents official notification and from that date candidates have a period of time to file a complaint. The candidate selected shall also be notified.

If the Rector finds any irregularities in the proceedings he/she may make a motivated request to the Board to obtain rectification.

Art. 11 Appointment by the Department

Within 60 days of the Rector's approval of the proceedings the Department Council that had requested the selection procedure must unanimously adhere to the decision and decide on a date to officially appoint the new researcher, to this end the Council must keep in mind the time needed to stipulate the contract.

The Department's deliberation must also be approved by the University's Board of Directors after which the researcher is invited to present all necessary documents for contract stipulation within 30 days.

If the winner renounces the position before signing the contract the Department may proceed to appoint the next candidate on the ranking list.

Art. 12 Drawing-up of contract

A fixed-term full-time employment contract shall be drawn up and underwritten by the Rector, all elements regarding fixed-term researcher contracts specified in art. 10 of the University's Regulations must be indicated within said contract.

Given that the contract shall be pursuant to Leg. Decree n.165/2001 art. 53, it is important to state that it cannot be accumulated with other employment contracts, research grants, Ph.D or Specialisation courses, nor with any other earnings or grants from the University. As regards the researcher's duties the main duties established by law in reference to the category shall be applied. The researcher appointed will be required to abide by the University's Code of Behaviour, not doing so shall lead to termination of contract. The researcher shall also abide by norms regarding security, as established in Leg. Decree n.81/2008 and also contact the Hygiene and Security Service office of the University to gather information on prevention measures to abide by while carrying out research.

The contract is for three years and is not renewable

The position is subject to all laws regarding termination.

Art.13 Salary and Social Security Benefits

The gross annual salary for fixed-term full-time researcher corresponds to € 41,877.67. The contract is subject to all social security and fiscal taxes.

Art. 14 Documents for Contract Stipulation

The researcher selected shall present all required documents together with all declarations certifying their requisites for appointment as pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000 art. 46 and 47 to the University's Settore Personale Docente e Ricercatori office as specified in art. 3 paragraph 6, numbers 1,2,3,4,5,8,9,10,11,12,13 in this announcement. The researcher shall also present personal declaration of certification regarding their marital status, household members, whether they belong to legally protected categories, whether they receive a pension, whether they are members of professional registers; they must also declare that they are not employed in any other public or private company or institution as pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000, art. 46 and 47.

If the researcher is already employed by a public institution he/she must ask for a leave of absence from their job to accept the researcher contract they have been selected for. Before starting work the researcher must undergo a medical check-up to obtain a certificate from the University doctor stating that their health allows them to carry out the job duties required, the researcher can contact the Settore Personale Docente e Ricercatori office to make an appointment with the doctor.

The University reserves the right to carry out sample checks to verify the information and certification presented.

If the researcher selected is a non-EU citizen he/she may present declarations pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000 in reference to facts that can be certified by Italian public entities; if the documents or declarations are issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin, they must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

Art. 15 Restitution of Documents

Candidates participating in the selection procedure, aside for the winner of the selection, may make a formal request to have all of their documents restituted 60 days and no later than 12 months after the proceedings are declared valid. The University shall return said documents if no appeals are underway. The candidate can make an appointment by phoning the Area Gestione Risorse Umane – Settore Concorsi office in order to retrieve his/her documents. Once the above time period for document retrieval has passed the University shall not be liable for said documents.

Art. 16 Personal Data

The handling of candidates' personal information is disciplined by Leg. Decree n. 196, 30 June, 2003. Personal information supplied by the candidates in the application form shall be collected by the offices of the University and processed for the purposes of the procedure and for the management of relations ensuing therefrom. The provision of said information is compulsory and necessary for the correct implementation of the selection procedure. The same information may be communicated only to Public Administrations directly involved in the economic and legal position of the candidate hired. Candidates are entitled to exercise the rights provided in the Legislative Decree mentioned above, including the right of access to the data concerning them, the right to amend, update, complete or delete erroneous or incomplete data or data collected in a manner that is contrary to law, and to object to processing for legitimate reasons.

Art. 17 Disclosure

This decree is made available to the public on the University website (<http://www.univaq.it>), on the Ministry of Education, University and Research website, and on the European Union website.

Art. 18 Reference to Implementation Modalities

For all matters not contained in this announcement, the resolutions, laws and regulations indicated in the introduction together with all laws regulating recruitment of University staff shall apply.

Art. 19 Head of the Selection Procedure

Pursuant to art. 5 of Italian Law n. 241 07 July, 1990, Simonetta Ricciardi, Head of the Settore Concorsi e Selezione office of the University of L'Aquila is also head of this selection procedure.
