

This week at GSSI

June 29 – July 4

Monday 29

3 pm; Room A

Seminar: Searching the local universe for gravitational waves produced from Core Collapse Supernovae

Speaker: Michele Zanolin, Embry Riddle University, PI-LIGO ERAU group

Monday 29 and Tuesday 30

All day; Main Lecture Hall

Workshop: Microscopia

Organized by LFoundry and University Sapienza of Rome

Tuesday 30

10 am;

Lecture Series - Key Concepts in Urban Studies: SHARING

Speaker: Angelo Sampieri, Polytechnic of Turin

Wednesday 1

3 pm; Main Lecture Hall

Seminar: Neutrino oscillation measurements at T2K

Speaker: Stefania Bordoni, IFAE (Barcelona)

Friday 3

From 10 am to 6 pm - Main Conference Hall

Workshop: Corrupt Cities. Corruption and organized crime in urban planning

Friday 3 and Saturday 4

Main Lecture Hall

Workshop for Master students: AstroMundus Retreat

AstroMundus is a 2-years Erasmus Mundus Masters Course (120 ECTS) in Astronomy and Astrophysics, now continuing within the framework of the new Erasmus+ programme of the European Union. The Masters Course is offered by a consortium of 5 partner universities in 4 different countries: Austria, Italy, Germany, and Serbia.